

How to Play Rules Photo Release

How to Play / Rules

- (1) The game is simple. There are ten challenges. All bowlers attempt to win each challenge at the same time on individual lanes. If all bowlers do not complete a challenge; for example, no one gets a split, all bowlers stay in the game and continue to the next challenge. The bowler who survives with the most completed challenges wins the jackpot. The prize fund is paid to winners on the day of the event. Bowlers/spectators must be present to win prizes.
 - (2) One optional $5 rebuy is allowed each game (Not needed when all bowlers don't get the challenge)
 - (3) A split is four pins or less. The distance apart must be greater than two pins. Baby splits do not count unless a third or fourth pin is involved; for example, 2-7-10 or 2-7-8-10, etc. The #1 pin (Headpin) can be included, for example, the 1-10, the 1-5-7, etc.
 - (4) Tied games are broken with a sudden-death roll-off.
 - (5) The price to play one game can range from $5 to $20. 75% of per game entry fees are allocated to the prize fund, 80% of optional rebuys go to the progressive jackpot. 80% payout goes to optional high 3-game total challenge pot. Places paid and the percentage of prize fund paid to each winner is based on the number of entries and can change every game.
 - (6) Challenge sets change after each game. Participants can play multiple games.
 - (7) One-lane courtesy rule. Do not bowl at the same time as the person next to you.
 - (8) After each challenge is announced, bowlers have one minute to complete a challenge (If more than one bowler is on a lane, add 30 seconds for each bowler. To keep everyone honest bowlers who do not complete the challenge have to leave the bowler's area until the game is over.
- Final decisions regarding any and all matters will be made by the Tournament Director.
- (9) You must be 18 years or older to play. All bowlers welcome, including professional bowlers (Different divisions).
 - (10) JackpotBowling reserves the right to change the rules at any time without notice.
